(*) with crew

There are 2 ways to participate in Catamaranscup International:

- With your own crew, you can charter a catamaran from our large fleet and get set!
- If you do not have a crew, you can join one of our open crews as crew member. No experience is needed.

Poros island

COOKOFF! COMPETITION | PRIZE AWARDS

Abound with pine trees which reach the rugged shores or the sandy beaches, Poros has inspired with its beauty many people, including the Greek nobelist Giorgos Seferis and the American writer Henry Miller. Along the pier there are plenty of cafeterias, restaurants, little taverns, tourist shops, many bars and discos with foreign & Greek music. Poros, with its traditional local color & modern facilities, is an ideal holiday resort.

Hydra island

SHOWOFF! COMPETITION
PRIZE AWARDS | DINNER

A cosmopolitan, glorious and magnificent island, where tranquility and relaxation is combined with an intensive night life. The impressive town is built amphitheatrically around the port and its main characteristic is that there are no wheeled vehicles allowed and the only means of transport is by donkey... or on foot. Enjoy authentic and traditional food at the tavernas & restaurants, romantic walks in the narrow paved alleys, or dance yourself out till the morning in the numerous bars, pubs & clubs.

Monemvassia

PRIZE AWARDS

Monemvassia is located in the southeastern Peloponnese. It was founded by the Byzantines in the 6th century and shortly after it became an important port. The old town of Monemvasia or Kastro (castle) is a perfectly preserved medieval settlement still inhabited, an world cultural heritage monument and a major attraction for every traveller in the Peloponnese. It has a unique, magical atmosphere and a fascinating history.

Ierakas

SHOWOFF! COMPETITION | DINNER
PRIZE AWARDS | FREE SAILING DAY

Unsuspecting sailors will be pleasantly surprised as they turn into the port of Ierakas, entering a fjord-like inlet referred to by Pausanias as an excellent port of call. The Acropolis of ancient Zarakas is situated above the modern settlement at the northeastern end of the outlet to the sea. The tranquillity of the surrounding landscape and the pretty seaside village create a perfect setting for yachts and other craft that find shelter there from all winds.

Athens Alimos

CHECK IN - REGISTRATION | OPENING CEREMONY
WELCOME DINNER | CREW PRESENTATION

Athens welcomes you once again and invites you to enjoy a short tour among the numerous places of interest and beauty. Have a ride along the coastline, from Piraeus to Cape Sounion, or visit the historical center and the modern museum of Acropolis. Whatever you decide to do the Greek capital will surely amaze you.

Competitions

COOK OFF!

Each crew shall prepare and present one or more dishes to the rest of the fleet, during the award ceremony.

Dishes shall be cooked by the crew on board their boat from "scratch". Dishes will be evaluated by the competitors and will be judged considering taste, appearance, presentation and originality. A prize will be awarded to the "Best Dish".

SHOW OFF!

Each crew will have maximum of 5' to present itself to the rest of the fleet, after the Skippers' briefing.

There may be one entry per boat. Presentations will be evaluated by the competitors and will be judged considering appearance, presentation and originality. Prizes will be awarded to the "Best Presentation".

SHOOT OFF!

The winning entry is judged to be the most visually appealing or original or impressive or self-explanatory shot of the race, the catamarans, the crews and the sailing area.

The winner will be announced during the closing ceremony of the Catamarans Cup International regatta.
