Poros island

▶ MORE ABOUT POROS

Abundant with pine trees that reach the rugged shores or the sandy beaches, Poros has inspired with its beauty many people, including the Greek novelist Giorgos Seferis and the American writer Henry Miller.

Along the pier there are plenty of cafeterias, restaurants, little taverns, tourist shops, many bars and discos with foreign & Greek music. Poros, with its traditional local color & modern facilities is an ideal holiday resort.

Ermioni

 MORE ABOUT ERMIONI

In a unique location opposite the island of Dokos and close to Hydra and Spetses, Ermioni is one of the most popular destinations in the Saronic Gulf. An ideal resort for short escapes from the city.

The beautiful coastal town, or a city-island like is been characterised, combines the serenity of island atmosphere with modern amenities, while maintaining unchanged the traditional character and natural beauty. In traditional tavernas you can enjoy wine or ouzo with fresh delicacies. The cafes and bars offer lively entertainment until dawn.

Leonidion

▶ MORE ABOUT LEONIDION

Leonidion is a lively and colourful town, especially in the summer months, as a result of being increasingly popular with tourists.

The old town of Plaka has remained in tact as it has been for centuries and is still the port of Leonidio. Once a busy trading port, today it is a tourist attraction and supply port for yachts, offering water, fuel and food supplies. A small fishing fleet is also based there with proud local fishermen. The beach spans 4km along the coast and the old town has a number of taverns and bars by the sea shore.

Nafplion

▶ MORE ABOUT NAFPLION

Is widely known as the historical jewel of the Peloponnese. Located on the north end of the Argolic gulf enjoys a very sunny and mild climate.

Nafplion attracts a huge number of tourists not just because of its magical atmosphere but also for the plenty of activities, the sightseeing and the rich entertainment that offers.

Spetses island*

▶ MORE ABOUT SPETSES

*Optional stop

The island is blessed with many beaches and pine forests that reach the sea. Tourist facilities are well developed offering all the modern comforts, but also a sense of family hospitality.

The horse drawn carriages are ideal for a romantic rides or as means of transportation, as the use of private owned cars is forbidden. The quietness of the day is followed by the intense pace of the night entertainment, with a great variety of Greek and foreign music.

Hydra island*
